

Wee Wei Ng
Senior Managing Director
Market Unit Lead - Southeast Asia
Country Managing Director, Singapore
Accenture

Wee Wei NG is the market unit lead for Southeast Asia, growing Accenture’s business across the region. Prior to that, Wee Wei led the Health and Public Service Client Service Group in Southeast Asia for 6 years and is a leading voice in Accenture, shaping thought leadership for the future of cities.

Wee Wei joined Accenture in 1995. She spent the majority of her career in Accenture working with clients across industries and government clients on iconic projects such as the National Digital Identity; Next Generation NS Portal and the whole-of-Government Workday implementation.

Under her sponsorship, Accenture Singapore also launched the Singapore Innovation Hub – Future of Cities, aimed at bringing together organisations across industries to develop smart urban solutions. She also championed initiatives to nurture the future workforce, including the establishment of the Talent Advancement Program, and reimagining benefits and ways of working in today’s omni-connected environment.

Wee Wei sits on the board of Accenture Foundation, an entity set up to financially support initiatives that promote social, charitable, cultural or scientific impact. Outside of Accenture, Wee Wei sits on the board of the Institute of Systems Science (ISS), National University of Singapore and is a member of the Workplace Safety and Health (WSH) Council.

Wee Wei is based in Singapore.
